Tasting Notes: A classic wine for us, a classic wine for Sta. Rita Hills. There's this cloud of aromas that often encompass you when you walk into an establishment with an open kitchen. You also see the service team bustling around, chaotically maybe at first glance, but on closer inspection, there's a flow that works. Strawberries, sage, and cinnamon with just the right amount of tannic bite in the end.

"Slightly more complex, broad, and meaty, with ripe currants, raspberries, black tea, and floral notes, the 2023 Pinot Noir Peake Ranch Vineyard was fermented with 25% whole clusters and aged 17 months in 38% new French oak. Medium-bodied, round and supple, with a beautiful Côte du Nuits-like character, it has ripe tannins, a layered mouthfeel, and a great finish. Drink 2025-2035."
